

Self Editing Checklist

Directions: Read each statement. If it is true then write your initials on the line. If it is not true, go back to your Personal Narrative Rough Draft, fix the issue, then you can write your initials on the line.

- ____ Does every sentence start with a capital letter?
 - ____ Does every sentence end with a punctuation mark?
 - ____ Is every word spelled correctly?
 - ____ Did you indent every paragraph?
 - ____ Did you use quotation marks correctly around the dialogue?
 - ____ Is there dialogue between the characters?
 - ____ Did you describe the setting?
 - ____ Did you describe the characters?
 - ____ Is your story based off events from "The Highwayman"?
 - ____ Is there a moral for the reader to learn from your story?
 - ____ Is there a conflict the main character has to deal with?
-

Peer-Editing Checklist

Peer-Editor's Name: _____

Directions: Read each statement. If it is true then write YES on the line. If it is not true write NO on the line, then go back to their Personal Narrative Rough Draft, fix the issue for them or write a note telling them to fix it.

- ____ Does every sentence start with a capital letter?
- ____ Does every sentence end with a punctuation mark?
- ____ Is every word spelled correctly?
- ____ Did they indent every paragraph?
- ____ Did they use quotation marks correctly around the dialogue?
- ____ Is there dialogue between the characters?
- ____ Did they describe the setting?
- ____ Did they describe the characters?
- ____ Is there a moral for the reader to learn from the story?
- ____ Is there a conflict the main character has to deal with?
- ____ Was the story interesting and fun to read?
- ____ Did the story sound good? Did it flow well like a story should?